Fair and warmer Tuesday

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, AUGUST 29, 1916.

VOL. 37—No. 104

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Ordered at last to move, the Kentucky troops start for the border tonight.

Wheat last week made a new high record of $1.55 at Chicago, but dropped five cents yesterday.

Two Baptist preachers at Colemanville baptized 50 converts in the Licking river in less than an hour.

The Southern Appalachian Good Roads Association will begin a four days' session at Lexington today.

The biggest thing on the program this week is the Great Pennyroyal Fair.

The ice strike at Memphis ended just as the weather clerk began to take a hand.

Hughes is taking a rest at Estes Park, Col., and incidentally giving the public one while his hammer is quiet.

The old-fashioned ground-soaker Sunday was just the thing to settle the dust for the fair. Weather conditions promise to be ideal.

Senator Walsh says the poor showing Judge Hughes has made on the stump is not due to his lack of ability, but to the bad cause he is forced to advocate.

Four hundred "redheads" from Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Michigan and Illinois, organized the "Red Head League of America" at Indianapolis, Saturday. Bob Green and Red Parish failed to get there in time.

Barbers on a strike in New York York are killing the goose that lays the golden egg and incidentally boosting the safety-razor business. Man a man who buys a safety will not go back to the barber shop after the strike.

The row over the resignation of Thos. B. McGregor, Republican, as election commissioner, has disclosed that Rodman W. Keenon, clerk of the Court of Appeals, is making himself officious as a leader of the faction of the party, that almost succeeded in defeating the ticket last year. It is charged that he is being controlled by Percy Italy and Republican Chairman Petty to act with the Republican member, named by Petty's committee for appointment by Gov. Stanley, and that he is preparing to turn down the Democratic commissioner's recommendations for members of the county boards and agree with the Republican member on all matters. Gov. Stanley has been supplied with a packed list from which the law requires him to appoint a Republican. The matter is one he cannot control. Let him comply with the law and place the responsibility on Keenon until he can be divested of the authority he has.

ASKS $1,000 DAMAGES.

J. S. Northington filed suit in the Circuit Clerk's office yesterday against Lindsay Hester and W. K. White, charging them with assaulting him on the twenty-sixth of July and bruising him with a whip. He charges White with being the leader of the two. He sues for $1,000 damages.

THOMAS SENT BACK.

Dennis Thomas, a paroled white prisoner, has been sent back to Eddyville to complete a two-year sentence, for violating his parole.

OSCAR HANBERY.

W. O. Hanbery, of this city, has gone to Dawson to act as Chief of Police, which had not been permanently supplied since the death of K. H. Keach.

Farmer Suicides.

Cortland Crosson, aged fifty-five, a farmer living near Star Union, Breckinridge county, committed suicide by shooting himself.

Brotherhoods and Managers Expected To Reject All Plans Offered.

PRESIDENT CALLS KERN

Tentative Plans Are Considered to Lay Crisis Before Session of Congress.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Tentative plans for a joint session of the senate and house to hear President Wilson ask for legislation to prevent the threatened nation-wide strike were discussed by the president with Senator Kern, the Democrat leader, when it seemed virtually certain that break between the railroads and their employees must follow final conferences.

Congressional plans include: An 8-hour day law for railway employees.

A bill to increase the membership of the interstate commerce commission from seven to nine members with authority to divide into groups.

A resolution stating it to be the sense of congress, that if the railroads grant a basic 8-hour day they should be entitled to increased revenues compensatory with the increased operating expenses.

A bill already pending, directing the interstate commerce commission to ascertain minimum, maximum and average wages paid with hours of service to every class of railroad employees, compare them with wages of other industries in which similar skill and risk are involved, to determine the relation of railroad wages to railroad revenues and urge both sides to present dispute to defer action pending the investigation.

Samuel Rea, president of the Pennsylvania railroad, Sunday night issued a statement which for the first time since the executives decided upon the course they would pursue, flatly announced that rather than give up arbitration, they regarded better to face a strike.

He declared that for the railroads to yield would result in a temporary but probably not a permanent postponement of the strike and that the issue of arbitration at stake in the present situation would be left unsettled.

Arbitration Proposed.

The railroad presidents have submitted their counter proposal to the President. This plan, holding to the demand for arbitration which the employees have declared they were unalterably opposed, proposes:

That the question of an eight hour day is not directly connected with the matter at issue and that there is a difference between an actual eight hour day as a basis for pay.

That questions of increases of wages are indisputable questions which should be settled by arbitration. That the present demands of the trainmen be submitted to arbitration by the interstate commerce commission or some board to be created by the president or in some other way.

That if the arbitration board finds a wage increase should be granted, that their finding would be retroactive and the increase will take effect from the time the arbitration begins.

That a fund shall be created by the railroads to provide for this contingency, the interstate commerce commission to keep the accounts that will be necessary and the arrangement to continue in the force for a time not yet determined upon, the men agreeing that during the period of arbitration there shall be no further demands nor any attempt to strike.

Cooler Weather for The Week

Washington, Aug. 28.—The Weather Bureau's prediction for the week in the Ohio valley and Tennessee follows: Showers and cooler, followed by fair until Thursday or Friday, then unsettled weather with probably local showers. Relative cool weather will prevail.

EMBARGO PLAN TO CUT PRICE

Delegation of Kentucky Tobacco Growers In Washington to Protest.

HOPKINSVILLE MEN LEAD

Suspect Ulterior Motive On Part of Great Britain—English Buyers Benefit.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Conferences of the most vital importance to the dark tobacco growers of Kentucky were begun here upon the arrival of a group of Western Kentucky growers, Sunday.

With their financial status, based upon the conditions of the market for this year's crop, at stake, the growers came to Washington to present the most serious protest against the actions of any of the European belligerents toward American producers, not excepting the British blacklist.

Although every attempt will be made to avoid them, there is strong likelihood that charges may be made against Great Britain that that nation has restored the embargo on tobacco to Germany and Austria to force down the price, that her buyers may reap the benefit.

The Kentucky growers who arrived here are prepared to submit facts and figures of a serious nature against England's attitude in the entire tobacco situation growing out of the war, although it is their hope and wish not to do so.

Although the embargo on tobacco to Germany and Austria is the principal cause of their complaint, the entire regulations of Great Britain extending to the importations into England, France, Russia and Italy will be touched.

R. E. COOPER, SPOKESMAN.

R. E. COOPER.

R. E. Cooper, a leading dark tobacco grower, of Hopkinsville, will be spokesman for the Kentuckians when they meet to outline the nature of their complaint to Secretary Lansing.

The tobacco men met at 10 o'clock in the office of Senator Martin, of Virginia. Senators James and Beckham, of Kentucky; Senator Martin, Senator Shields and Representative D. H. Kincheloe, Alben W. Barkley and R. Y. Thomas, Jr., of Kentucky, and Bryus, of Tennessee, attended this conference.

PERSONNEL OF PARTY.

Arrivals from Kentucky last night for the conference were George E. Gary, J. E. McPherson and R. E. Cooper, of Christian county; S. A. Powell, of Pembroke; Judge W. P. Gregory, of Mayfield, and Ruby Laffoon, W. J. Cox and C. E. Owen, of Madisonville. Others expected today are James A. McKenzie and W. T. Fowler, of Hopkinsville; Felix Ewing, of Cedar Hill, Tenn., and Joel Fort, of Springfield, Tenn.

It will be pointed out by the growers that it is they and not the buyers and speculators who are injured by the British Orders-in-Council. They will show that last year, when the embargo was announced, the price of tobacco took a big drop and that after the growers had disposed of the major portion of their crops the embargo was lifted and the price rose.

It will be shown that France, which

GASOLINE CAUSES FIRE

Warehouse at Newstead Burned Saturday Night at a Loss of $6,000.

HIRAM KELLY INJURED

Property Was Owned by E. R. Gilliam, Who Had No Insurance.

After they had finished work Saturday night at about 10 o'clock, Hiram Kelly and Will Long, clerks in the store of E. R. Gilliam, on the Newstead Road, decided to take an automobile trip. They went into Mr. Gilliam's warehouse to get gasoline for the car. They took a lantern with them to light the way. They set this down in the warehouse near the gasoline tank.

The warehouse had been a tobacco factory. Its use for this purpose had been long since discontinued and it was used as a general implement room. In it were about 19 tons of hay, a car load of wire fencing, several plows, hay rakes and harrows and all kinds of farm implements beside the gasoline tank which had just been filled.

The boys filled the tank and there was an explosion, causing an immediate conflagration. They rushed from the building calling for help. Hiram Kelly had his arms and face badly burned. Within three minutes after the explosion of the gas the whole roof and sides were in flames.

Mr. Gilliam and several men rushed to the scene. On one side the stable with horses, hay and corn inside. Behind the warehouse was his scale house. Neighbors who saw the flames rushed to aid the fire fighters with buckets filled from a cistern. Mr. Gilliam and others drove the horses out from the stable.

All the implements in the warehouse were burned and the hay and corn in the stable was destroyed by the fire.

The warehouse and stable burned until midnight, when the buildings gave way and crumbled into heaps of blazing ashes. A hay stack on the side burned until Sunday afternoon when the rain put it out. There was no insurance on the building. The total loss is estimated at $6,000.

DAMAGE SUIT FOR $3,000

Brought By Administrator of Colored Boy Killed By a Car.

Grant Smith, administrator of the estate of James Smith, deceased, the colored boy who was fatally injured at the rock quarry of the Kentucky Crushed Stone Company, has sued for damages.

The accident occurred a week ago, when a car owned by the L. & N. railroad ran over him, mangleing his legs and body. The petition declares that the brakes and other appliances were broken and out of repair and that the accident resulted from this.

Jas. Smith, who was 17 years old, was employed by the Stone company to remove cars containing stone. The petition names the Kentucky Crushed Stone Co. and the L. & N. Railroad as defendants and prays judgment in the sum of $3,000.

Last year through her independent buyers purchased 32,000,000 pounds of tobacco, will want 88,000,000 this year, and that Italy will be in the open market for similar increases. These two countries are direct buyers. The crop of dark tobacco this year is one of the finest in the history of Kentucky, the growers said, and unless England lifts the embargo, there will be no competition for the 350,000,000 pounds, leaving the growers to take what they can get.

OPENING DAY OF THE FAIR

Stores Will Be Closed And Everybody Will Attend.

CARNIVAL HAS STARTED

Attractive Program For This, The First Day—Speed Rings.

The great Pennyroyal Fair opens today. The effort this year will be to make it like it used to be in the good old days when father and mother and all the family crowded into the family buggy and went to stay all day. The only difference will be that the whole city of Hopkinsville will be in the family and they will ride out in anything they can find.

Opening day, with its noise and happy confusion, its brass bands and exhibits, its races and horse contests, is upon us. This afternoon at one-thirty the gathering will be on the corner of Ninth and Main. Automobile, truck, delivery wagon and buggy owners have offered their vehicles to the clerks who have been given a holiday and the other people of the town. If you want a ride just show up on time and its up to the committee in charge to get you out to the grounds.

This is old soldiers day. All the veterans will be out as honored guests. They will be admitted as visitors of honor to the fair. The Italian band will play patriotic pieces in their honor.

CARNIVAL STARTED MONDAY.

Last night the Metropolitan Shows began their performances. The City of Tents spread its pleasure avenue all over the open space between the ticket booth and the stables and then didn't have room to breath its fullest. The special train of fifteen cars arrived at one-thirty Monday morning and before noon yesterday the tent crews were ready to rest from their preliminary work.

"Doc" Barkfield is the owner and principal man of the Carnival. He is the only carnival owner in the states who doesn't wear a stiff bosomed white shirt and a frown like the sun was in his eyes. He keeps things going and has a clean bunch of shows.

The "Flying Winnies" in a death acrobatic free act will perform in front of the grand stand in order that their acts may be seen, according to a statement made by press agent W. G. Davis this morning. The Metropolitan band will play two hours during each afternoon while the speed ring programs are on.

GOOD PROGRAM TO-DAY.

The program for today is good enough to suit anybody. In the cattle display there will be prizes of nearly three hundred dollars given to the best animals. Shorthorn and Hereford cattle, with prizes for bulls, cows, heifers and for head bull, will have the first attention. The list of awards is generous and some of the best cattle in the state is expected to be shown.

Hogs are also to be given special attention. Some good looking hogs came in yesterday and the contests are expected to give the judges a hard time.

There are several prizes for light harness and plantation saddle horses offered on the opening day program.

The speed ring program for the day is one of the best of the week. It has a 2:24 trot, a free for all pace, two running races and a pony race. The bill ends up with a motorcycle race which is sure to make you shiver.

FOR $310 DAMAGES.

T. J. Ladd filed a damage suit for $310 against T. D. McGee and W. R. Faulkner yesterday morning. The suit is over some land, sold, or supposed to have been sold recently in a master commissioner's sale. The tract of land is in Trigg county.

RUMANIA ENTERS WAR

Italy Ends One of e Anomalous Situations of The Great War.

ITS EFFECT ON CAMPAIGN

Fighting Progressing on Every Front But No Decision at Any Point.

London, Aug. 28.—Germany and Italy at last are at war. Italy has ended the anomalous situation that has existed for months, declaring that from Monday she considers herself the enemy of her former ally. The formal declaration amounts to little more than official recognition of a state of affairs which already existed.

The declaration became inevitable when Italy recently sent troops to Saloniki to co-operate in the campaign of the entente allies on the Macedonian front, as Germany is directing the opposing forces and has troops on this battle line. Italy's position in regard to Germany has been an anomalous one since Italy withdrew from the triple alliance May 23 of last year and declared war on Austria. Although by this act she arrayed herself against her former allies, Germany and Austria, she remained officially at peace with Germany until formal declaration was made.

This action probably will have little effect on the military situation, although as the war goes on it may have a most important bearing. On the Austro-Italian front Italy finds activity for not more than half her army and in the future can send available troops to any front.

Heavy fighting continues between the entente and Teuton allies in the Macedonian theater of the region of Lake Ochrida, eastward of Kavala on the Aegean, but with results beclouded by diverging statements of Berlin and Paris.

Rumania to-day entered the war by declaring war on Germany and Austria. She has 500,000 soldiers mobilized.

HAS PROSPERED IN COLORADO

John Sollee and Family Here on a Visit After Twelve Years' Absence.

John Sollee, wife and daughter and young son, of Pueblo, Colo., arrived here Saturday in a Buick car, having made their journey overland in eleven days. William Sollee, son of John Sollee, with his family, also came in a Maxwell car, but stopped to visit his relatives in Hopkins county.

Mr. Sollee was formerly a school teacher in North Christian but moved to Colorado twelve years ago, where he has prospered. This is his first return visit. The party expects to remain in this section for about two weeks visiting R. F. Pool and other friends and relatives. Mr. Pool is a cousin to Mr. Sollee.

GROUNDLESS RUMOR.

Rev. and Mrs. Geo. C. Abbitt and sons, Henry and Macon, have returned from the University of the South, at Sewanee, Tenn., where they have been spending the summer. Mr. Abbitt says there was no truth in the report in Saturday's Courier-Journal, that he would be changed from Hopkinsville to another church. Mr. Abbitt says he does not know how the report could have started.

Soldier Deserts.

Arthur Devary, of Lexington, member of C Company, Second Regiment, is to be tried on a charge of desertion. Devary, if convicted, is liable to eighteen months' imprisonment.

Senator Sherman of Illinois, who is

C. O. McBride, representing F. M.
 Crump, of Memphis, purchased the first bale of this season's cotton Wednesday from B. A. Mashburne, who raised the cotton on the farm of R.
 K. McBride, in Shelby county. The bale weighed 640 pounds, was classed as strict low middling and the purchase price was 15 cents per pound.
 N. H. Murphy, president of the Covington Cotton & Oil Company, bought the seed, paying $2.50 per hundred pounds. Both the cotton and seed brought a premium. The cotton and seed netted Mashburne $127.87.

The fact that Senator Beckham was one of the ten Democrats who voted for immediate consideration of the Immigration Bill, in spite of the caucus decision to postpone it, does not necessarily imply that Senator Beckham is not a good Democrat. It is not or ought not to be a partisan measure and Democrats may be expected to differ upon the importance of such questions. When President Wilson made it plain that he would not approve the bill in its present form, Senator Beckham promptly changed his vote. If we mistake not, some of the Kentucky Congressmen are opposed to the President's preparedness plans, and yet they are good Democrats and have all been renominated. The Kentuckian did not support Mr. Beckham for the nomination for Senator, but it believe he should be given credit for doing his own thinking.

 it a coat of linseed oil and whitening is easily removed when the pan is to be used for cooking purposes.

POULTRY CLUBS
IN KENTUCKY

Farm Boys and Girls are Made
 Happy by Government Aid
 In Getting a Start.

REASON FOR CLUBS.

Next to the corn and wheat production of the country comes the modest hen that grinds out the millions of eggs used each year for food in the United States. The value of market poultry and eggs is right at the top, and the demand is ever increasing to supply the wants of the people.

In other words, we haven't hens enough in the country to supply the demand for eggs alone. The government recognizes this fact and has established a poultry organization as part of the Bureau of Animal Industry; for the purpose of stimulating the poultry industry throughout the country.

A state poultry agent has been appointed for Kentucky, as well as for other Southern states, and it is his business to help teach the necessity of improved poultry methods, especially among the boys and girls who will be the farmers of the next generation.

The State Poultry Agent for Kentucky, is Arthur S. Chaplin, who has headquarters in the Agricultural Experiment Station, Lexington. Information regarding poultry problems and the government bulletins on various phases of poultry husbandry may be secured by writing to him.

Poultry is a valuable source of income on the farm, as well as the best source of a fresh meat supply for the home table. Farmers should improve their flocks and aim for a better quality of market poultry and egg. The boys' and girls' poultry clubs will aid in this development.

OBJECT OF POULTRY CLUBS.

The object of poultry club work,
 as carried on in six Southern states by the Bureau of Animal Industry, U. S.
 Department of Agriculture, may be briefly stated as follows:

1. To develop and make more wholesome rural life by organizing and helping the coming generation of boys and girls.

2. To instruct boys and girls by means of government bulletins which give valuable information on the subject of the selection of stock, hatching, rearing, feeding and housing and marketing their poultry products. Also by means of the general supervision of the State Agent and special supervision of the County Farm Demonstrator and Canning Club Agent.

3. The holding of the club poultry shows in connection with the county and state fair exhibits.

4. To create a sense of ownership on the part of club members, and a love for animals, which means development of good character.

5. To stimulate an interest in agricultural education.

STANDARDIZATION PLANS.

Several of the Kentucky poultry clubs have been organized on a community breeding plan, and all the members have adopted one variety, usually of a general purpose breed, in order to develop a uniform market product. Christian county, as a whole, has adopted the White Wyandottes and the boys and girls there are having splendid success in their start with the Wyandottes. More than half the club members in Pulaski county are raising Barred Rocks. This scheme of standardizing one variety helps to develop interest and will mean much toward more profitable poultry raising.

REQUIREMENTS.

Any boy or girl of 10 to 18 years may become a Poultry Club member in the counties where the work is carried on by incubating at least one setting of eggs from fine bred stock. Members are required to write a composition on poultry raising during the year and keep records of their work in books furnished by State Agent. Each boy and girl is expected also to exhibit one dozen eggs and some of his chickens at the county fair each fall. There is no cost in any way except the price of the eggs purchased and that is the members investment.

RESULTS.

The co-operation of Kentucky's leading poultry breeders is helping farm boys and girls get a start in the poultry business.

Agricultural education started in rural schools.

The production of the infertile eggs after the breeding season, thereby saving the producer of eggs $15,000, 000 annually.

The improvement of farm poultry.

The Poultry Clubs provide for the boy and girl on the farm, a much needed interest and share in farm life.

OUR PRESIDENT.

We are proud that we are citizens
 Of the grand old U. S. A.,
 But prouder still of Our President,
 Who usually has his way.

He's no ordinary man,
 The world has found that out.
 No matter what the crisis is,
 He knows what he's about.

We like to call him teacher,
 When our angry darts we hurl,
 But thanks to his great wisdom,
 He is the teacher of the world.

He's the country's greatest President,
 And he's the people's choice,
 And they should re-elect him
 Without one dissenting voice.

He stands for Peace with honor,
 For the weak against the strong,
 For Mother, Home and Heaven,
 For the right against the wrong.

How can we best assist him,
 And in his triumph share?
 By shouldering the loads, my brother,
 And help him the burden bear.

We'll rally for our President,
 No other can fill his place,
 For he's the greatest leader,
 And he's sure to win the race.

Then hurrah for our President,
 And bravely by him stand,
 For he is the one great statesman
 That we want to rule our land.

Three cheers for our President
 That now is and is to be,
 For he's standing by the colors,
 And marching on to victory.

Strong Appeal.

 sion, asserts that if two-thirds of the Mocha and Java.

Once famous for its coffee, Mocha has little left today but its olden name. At that period the Arabian province of Yemen, of which Mocha was the chief seaport, supplied practically all the berries used. At the end of the seventeenth century the coffee plant was introduced into Java and in a short time "Mocha and Java" became a trade name of great popularity.

Prince Albert gives smokers such delight, because —its flavor is so different and so delightfully good;

—it can't bite your tongue;
—it can't parch your throat;
—you can smoke it as long and as hard as you like without any comeback but real tobacco happiness!

On the reverse side of every Prince Albert package you will read:

"PROCESS PATENTED JULY 30th, 1907"

That means to you a lot of tobacco enjoyment. Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

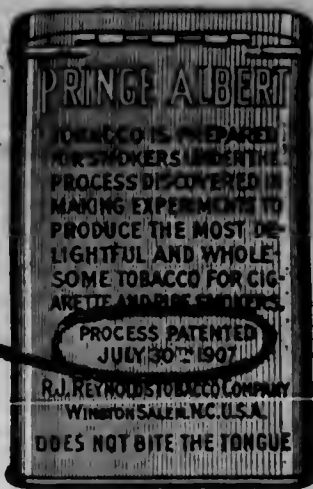

YOU'LL find a cheery howdy-do on top no matter how much of a stranger you are in the neck of the woods you drop into. For, Prince Albert is right there—at the first place you pass that sells tobacco! The tippy red bag sells for a nickel and the tidy red tin for a dime; then there's the handsome pound and half-pound tin humidor and the pound crystal-glass humidor with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such bang-up trim all the time!

in goodness and in pipe satisfaction is all we or its enthusiastic friends ever claimed for it!

It answers every smoke desire you or any other man ever had! It is so cool and fragrant and appealing to your smokeappetite that you will get chummy with it in a mighty short time!

Will you invest 5c or 10c to prove out our say-so on the national joy smoke?

TO CHECK RISING PRICE OF PAPER

Nebraska Senator Would Apply Stiff Tax to News Print Over Certain Cost.

Washington, Aug. 25. — Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, has prepared an amendment to the revenue bill intended to check the soaring prices of news print paper. He said today he would bring it up in the Senate when certain sections of the bill were reached for debate. Mr. Hitchcock himself is a newspaper publisher.

Paper selling at $40 a ton and under would not be taxed. When the price passes $40 a ton a tax of $1 a ton would prevail until $45 a ton is reached, when the tax would increase to $3 and mount up gradually until a tax of $40 a ton would prevail on paper selling for more than $90.

"My proposed amendment is designed not so much to raise revenue," said Mr. Hitchcock, "as it is to make it unprofitable for paper manufacturers to charge exorbitant prices for news print paper."

"The price of news print paper has been very stable for several years until recently, selling around two cents a pound at the mills. There has been an increase in the consumption of paper in the last two years for two reasons. First, the great increase in circulation arising from the war, and more recently the increased volume in advertising, due to prosperity. The result is that all surplus stock of paper practically has disappeared."

SUPPLY SHORT OF DEMAND.

"The mills are making about 6,500 tons a day and we are importing about 1,200 tons a day from Canada, but this does not meet the demand. The result is that manufacturers whose product is not fully contracted for are taking advantage of the situation to sell paper at exorbitant figures. While the great bulk of news print paper is selling at two cents a pound under existing contracts, all new sales are bringing from four to five cents a pound."

"Many newspapers that are paying $40 a ton for their regular supply are paying $60 a ton for any surplus they need, and any newspaper so unfortunate as to have its contracts expire is being compelled to pay from $80 to $160 a ton for its whole supply, which is ruinous."

Price for Danish Isles.

Objection is made to the price offered by the United States for the Danish West Indies. From a commercial point of view the islands are worse than worthless. They cost Denmark more than they return. In area they consist of but 138 square miles, as compared with 198 square miles in the city of Chicago. The population is less than 33,000. Trade and industry are languishing.

Why they are worth anything to us is because they are believed to be for sale. Their purchase by an European power might cause complications which could never be settled for $25,000,000.

Yet there is very serious opposition to the sale in Denmark. One explanation offered is that the wily Danes are bidding for a higher price. More likely though the opposition is based on the same reasons which make Americans oppose the sale of the Philippines. There is a feeling that there is a curtailment of the country's greatness. The nation has constricted itself.

At the outbreak of war on this hemisphere, it is quite likely the islands would be seized by one or other of the contending parties. The United States would prefer to be there first and with lawful right.—Evansville Courier.

WHAT KILLED YOUR POULTRY?

Hawk Usually Carries Off Young Chicks, Leaving Larger Ones—Work of Weasel Differs.

A hawk usually carries off the young chicks, but if they attack larger ones the bodies will be left. It will be found that death has been caused by a tear at the back of the neck. The skull will be torn open and the feathers scattered but not trailed.

If the chicken is found dead on its side, with its neck stretched out, and a small wound in the throat, it is the work of a weasel that has sucked its blood.

If a carcass is found with the head and breast devoured, it is the work of a cat.

As a rule, the rat does its deadly work at night, and the carcass often is found very badly mauled. The entrails generally are drawn out, but not eaten, and the carcass is bitten and gnawed in many places.

Died Friday Evening at

Mrs. Mae Ware Freeburgh died at the Jennie Stuart Hospital at 9 o'clock Friday night after an illness of ten days, of kidney trouble. She was a daughter of the late Dr. R. W. Ware and was born Nov. 14, 1861. She was married to Mr. Chas. A. Freeburgh in January 1913, and lived for one year in Oklahoma and a year in Florida. They returned to this city in 1915, and Mr. Freeburgh resumed a position at the Western State Hospital that he had filled for many years. Mrs. Freeburgh was an intelligent and accomplished lady, having much talent as an artist, hand-painted china being a line in which she was especially proficient.

Besides her husband she is survived by her mother, her sister, Mrs. R. E. McRoberts, of Lancaster, Ky., and two brothers, James H. and Harry G. Ware.

She was a member of the First Baptist church and her funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. M. Thompson at the home of her brother, Jas. H. Ware, Saturday afternoon at four o'clock. The interment was in Riverside Cemetery.

Mrs. R. E. McRoberts, of Lancaster, who came to attend the funeral of her sister, was taken ill at the cemetery and was taken to the Jennie Stuart Hospital Saturday evening, where she is still ill, but improving.

Saved By Wilson.

Dallas, Tex., Aug. 28.—With an estimated vote of 25,000 yet to be heard from in Saturday's United States senatorial run off primary, Senator Chas. A. Culberson was leading former Gov. Colquitt by 66,275 votes to-night. The missing returns, it is believed, cannot materially change the present ratio. In the July primary in which there were five candidates Colquitt received about 30,000 more votes than Culberson, but lacked a majority of the total vote cast.

Colquitt was opposed to Wilson's policies, and had the support of ex-Senator Joseph W. Bailey and the German Alliance.

SOME PESTS OF STRAWBERRY

Plan to Have Land, Previous to Planting, in Some Crop Requiring Clean Cultivation.

Weeds are bad enemies of the strawberry, and for this reason it is a good plan to have the land, previous to the time of planting, in some crop that requires clean cultivation. This will give a field practically free from weeds.

If the plants are to be set out in the spring, the ground should be fall plowed. Before planting, the ground should be worked thoroughly and put in the condition.

The Wholesome Onion.
Onions are a specific for the complexion. They should be boiled whole in milk—drink the latter—or steamed and eaten with bread and butter and cheese. Then they make a satisfying and nutritious meal, on which you can do brain work or manual labor. Try onions! The taste and after-smell? A mouthful of hot coffee takes away both.

Plays Quits.

Thos. B. McGregor, Republican state election commissioner, has resigned. No reasons are given.

THE TOBACCO SITUATION.

Editor Kentuckian:

A thought or so in regard to the tobacco situation may not be amiss at the present time.

We have now ready for housing one of the largest and best crops ever raised and if the farmer does not get one of the biggest and best prices for it I believe it will be his own fault and he will only be to blame.

Why the mad rush to sell before its time? In the seventies, October was considered the best month in which to sell lugs, and away up in the eighties, the deliveries to the market up to the first of May were considered to represent only one-half of what the crop would be for the season.

But now it seems every man is making a John Gilpin race to sell his tobacco before or shortly after Christmas. It seems to be a case of "Hurry, Hurry," from planting until sold and delivered. The farmer is taking a little price in order that he may get rid of a crop that has cost him both money and worry to make. Don't you ever fear but that you will sell your tobacco, it matters not how much you may have. There is always somebody wanting to buy it.

I call to mind two instances that occurred with this last crop sold.

One farmer who makes about eighty thousand pounds was in my office talking about selling, when lugs and trash were selling at about $4.00 per 100 lbs. and leaf was bringing about $5.00 per 100. I advised him that if he was just bound to sell something to let me sell his lugs and trash and hold his leaf, as I saw no chance for it to go lower. He went directly out of my office and sold his entire crop at about $5.00 round. If he had waited 30 days he would have received $1,600.00 more for his crop and if he had waited 45 days he would have received $2,400.00 more than he got.

In the other case one of our customers brought in and sold his lugs and trash, but through a lucky circumstance was forced to hang his leaf to get it in order. I advised him to hold that leaf and not to hurry. I wrote him on three different dates not to sell that leaf, but to wait. If his leaf had been sold on the same day that his lugs and trash were sold it would not have brought over $6.00 per 100. He finally would sell it and got about $8.00 per 100 for it. If he had waited and sold that leaf with us the same date that he delivered it to the buyer, he would easily have received $9.50 to $10.00 for it.

Then why all this "Hurry, Hurry?" You now have a good crop of tobacco. Put it in the barn right. Don't coddle or cook it by trying to cure it in one or two days. Cure it right and then sit down on it and wait.

You are the key to the situation and have the power to control it.

For my part, I don't believe the English embargo will cut near the figure that some seem to think, and it is very questionable as to whether they will take it off or not.

When a pound of our tobacco is sold here for say 7 cents per pound and is shipped to England, they immediately add a tax for revenue of $1.33 per POUND, so you see when a manufacturer goes to buy leaf tobacco in England it costs him $1.40 per pound or $140 per 100 pounds. This is one way the English have of raising their revenue. So they want to buy this tobacco just as cheap as possible.

In regard to shipments to Germany, you must understand, that Germany, in addition to her manufactures, exports to Austria, Africa, India and other countries large quantities of tobacco and receives thereon a profit and it is this profit that England objects to Germany receiving. Hence the embargo.

Now from present daily reports (if there be any truth in them) it won't be long before some of the parties engaged in the war will be yelling "NUFF," and when that takes place of course the embargo will be lifted.

I am not seriously alarmed at the present situation. This new crop will come on an absolutely bare market and to my mind is in a strong position, if you will wait.

Put it in proper condition and sit down on it.

If you want to draw some money on it, come to see us.

Very respectfully yours,
H. H. ABERNATHY.

Another Falsehood Shattered.

Colonel Roosevelt and other Republicans have devoted too much criticism to the alleged inefficiency of the United States Navy under the Wilson administration. The New York World has made a very careful investigation of conditions and finds that the reverse of the charges is true, the Navy being better organized, better officered and manned, better supplied with ammunition, more economically operated and better balanced than at any time in its history. Every branch of the Naval service has been greatly improved since March 4th, 1913, and the organization of the Atlantic and other fleets developed to a higher degree of efficiency.

After sixteen years of Republican rule President Wilson found the Navy in bad shape and immediately made every move possible to improve it, the result of which has been it has become a greatly more efficient fighting organization. It has been impossible so far to correct all the Republican shortcomings, but the most glaring have been eliminated.

The present administration has added ninety-six vessels to the active and reserve fleets in the Atlantic and will have twenty-five battleships, forty-two destroyers, twenty-two submarines and seventy-two other vessels, one hundred and seventy-two in all, co-operated in the summer maneuvers this year. During three years the administration has authorized the construction of ten dreadnaughts and battle cruisers, four scout cruisers, twenty-six destroyers, seventy-six submarines and largely increased the ammunition, torpedo and projectile outputs. It has also established a Naval Reserve, saved the country $1,110,000 on armor contracts and effected numerous other contracts aggregating millions. Desertion has dropped fifty per cent. and is steadily decreasing. Secretary Daniels has added 6,331 men to the enlisted strength of the Navy and for the first time in many years there are more men on the pay roll of the Navy than Congress has actually authorized.

Like all of the criticisms directed by the Republicans against the Democratic administration, that of the Navy falls very flat. In fact the World's authentic article proves conclusively in the recklessness of Republican criticisms and shows that all their charges are predicted falsely and cannot be maintained.

Viewed from every angle the Wilson administration has been the greatest in history and has accomplished more for the good of the country than any in the memory of man.

WORKS BOTH WAYS.

It has already dawned upon the Republican leaders that Hughes made a bad break when he declared for nation wide woman suffrage, since President Wilson has definitely taken the other track and declared that each state should govern the suffrage question to suit itself.

Republican leaders are now frank to admit that they are not so sure that the stand taken by Mr. Hughes will rally many supporters to his banner. It has pleased the 4,000,000 women of the suffrage states, but as they already have the right of the ballot through state action it is doubted whether they will be so much concerned in national suffrage as to cast their ballots on the strength of that one issue alone. In fact, the word that comes from some of the suffrage states out west is that the women are not keen for the federal amendment scheme of extending the idea.

Concern is now felt by Republican leaders as to the effect of Hughes' national suffrage declaration on the campaigns this year in a number of mid-western and eastern states, and especially Ohio, Kentucky and New York.

In Ohio the equal suffrage proposition has been submitted to the voters on two separate occasions and each time it has been defeated, not overwhelmingly but by what is denominated a fair vote. In strongholds like Cincinnati equal suffrage is very unpopular and astute politicians express the belief that the stand taken by Hughes in favor of the suffragists will to an extent, at least, offset the lukewarmness supposed to exist among the German-Americans towards President Wilson. In fact, Hughes' suffrage announcement is regarded as a distinct democratic asset in Hamilton county, Ohio.

Word that reaches the national capital from Kentucky is that the democratic leaders are preparing to make a big display of Mr. Hughes' national suffrage declaration, as they think it will do more than anything else to hold Kentucky in the democratic column.

In New York, where the electoral vote is a large prize, the equal suffrage proposition was overwhelmingly defeated when submitted at a recent election, and it is declared that among certain elements of the New York population the sentiment against woman suffrage remains intense.

Might Be Dead To-day.

Garden City, Kan.—In a letter from Mrs. James Hammer, of this city, she says: "I firmly believe that I would not be alive today, if it were not for Cardui. I had been a sufferer from woman's troubles all my life, until I found that great remedy. I feel that I can't praise it too highly." Are you a woman suffering from some of the troubles, to which a woman is peculiarly liable? If so, why not try Cardui, the woman's tonic? You can rely on Cardui. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and acts gently but surely, without bad after-effects. "It will help you. Ask your druggist.—Advertisement.

Blind Tigers Rampant.

Hell is crushing through the breast-works of our local option. The blind tiger is on the rampage and is clawing out the vitals of society. This has a cause somewhere. There is either a weakness in the law or the men who should enforce it. Back of the gun barrel stands the uncorked whiskey bottle. Back of the whiskey bottle, stands the illicit poison venders and back of all, we stand afraid to demand of our officials that this reign of slaughter be stopped. Widows, orphans, poverty and bloodshed. An awful price to pay a gang of cut-throats. We look pleadingly to the "powers that be" and in the language of "Uncle Tom" with uplifted hands, we exclaim "Oh Lord, how long?"

It is high time for the ministers in our town to take up the blind tiger question. Expose every man who winks at this nefarious traffic. If here is an official in our town or county who will not do his duty, let him resign, and put some one in who will do his duty. Organization is needed and this snake should be crushed right now. It will only be one year until the next election. Let the temperance people stand together and vote as a unit. Put in office men who will suppress this traffic. Other counties do it, and they steer clear of such murders as Falmouth has recently witnessed.—Falmouth Outlook.

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous For Hopkinsville People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they so often get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health will be gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease often follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, which are so strongly recommended right here in this locality.

J. W. Francis, Alleghre, Ky., says: "For sixteen or eighteen years kidney trouble clung to me. My back was lame in the morning, I felt languid and was subject to headaches and dizzy spells. Every cold I caught settled in my kidneys and at such times I had to get up at night to pass the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me in a short time. I am feeling much better in every way."

CROSSED WIRES CAUSED FIRE

That Did Several Hundred Dollars Damage To Residence.

Two electric light wires crossed and started a fire which did considerable damage to the home of Bailey Waller on Water street Sunday night at about half past ten. The damage was mainly caused by the water from the fire hose, by which the fire department extinguished the flames. Mr. Waller has not estimated the damage but it is understood that it amounted to several hundred dollars.

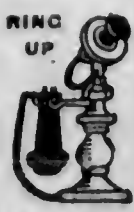

Herndon Waller was returning from calling and first saw the flames. Mrs. Waller had retired and Mr. Waller was sitting reading directly under the burning roof. Herndon ran in and told his father of the fire. While Mr. and Mrs. Waller called the fire department and were engaged in the house, Herndon climbed up on the roof with the garden hose and tried to stop the conflagration, but the wetness of the roof caused by the rain of the day, kept the fire on the inside of the roof, making it impossible to reach the flames from the exterior.

The fire department answered the summons immediately, but was not called upon to battle with the flames until an effort was made to put out the fire by using a Rapid Fire Extinguisher containing chemicals that would not have damaged the interior of the house or the furnishings so badly as the streams of water did. Sam Hardwick and John Adams were among the first to come on the scene and did valiant work clearing the rooms where there was danger of the fire breaking through, and fighting the flames.

Joe Randall, who had been to church and had on a new suit of clothes, also rushed into the burning building to render what assistance he could. He went up to the sleeping porch where the fire was breaking through the roof and had his clothes ruined when the water from the fire hose broke through the ceiling bringing plaster and lathing with it.

The fire department soon put the fire out but their water caused the damage to the interior and furniture. The furniture was not moved to outside as it was raining all during the fire. The damage was covered by insurance. Mr. and Mrs. Waller are staying in the back part of the house where little damage was done.

He left Lexington yesterday, not knowing what is in store for him, except that it is something greatly to his advantage.

Young Dabney has also gained distinction as a tennis player, defeating everybody about Lexington, including Prof. Tygart, the state champion. He and Prof. Tygart were going to Louisville this week to accept a change to play tennis, but this trip will have to be abandoned.

GETTING BUSY ON THE ROADS

The Turnpike Contractors Have Started Work With Several Gangs.

BIG DEMAND FOR LABOR

Steady Work For Hundreds As Farming Season Nears End.

Christian county roads are the scenes of heated action these days. Rollers and road machines are steaming up and down the pike and half a dozen gangs of selected laborers are busily engaged with the pick and shovel building up the roads. The work consists mainly of resurfacing and grading.

There are now over fifty hands at work. Nearly two hundred are expected to be at work before the week is out. Ten teams are being used in the work and more will be added. The work is being held up until the arrival of crushers and other machines which are necessary before the work can be put into full progress.

Mr. Montgomery of the Montgomery-Perkins Co., which has the contract for the roads, and superintendent W. H. Prentice, are on the scene and are taking actual charge of the work. Mr. Prentice will remain in charge of the work until its completion. Mr. Montgomery will be here for a month and will then make periodical visits, keeping a personal look-out on the work.

Work has been started with three gangs on the Madisonville pike. One of these is in Crofton and two are working just beyond Crofton. Two teams are busy on the Princeton road on the last half of the pike. One gang is at work on the Dover road.

Near Fairview a concrete gang of which Walter Trice is foreman, under Mit Moore, is building a bridge on the Elkton pike.

Mr. Prentice stated yesterday that the work was expected to be in full blast by the middle of the week. It was started last Wednesday and will continue until completed on the roads on which it has been started.

MEMORIAL

Resolutions Adopted by Fidelis Class of the First Baptist Church.

Whereas in the prime of young manhood, and in the midst of wonderful achievement, the great instructor and teacher of the Universe called from this to a higher life, the esteemed and much beloved and appreciated teacher of Fidelis class, Judge J. T. Hanbery, and whereas he was a thorough-going consecrated christian gentleman, a scholar and a man unusually gifted in the knowledge of the Bible, and abounding in faith, in spirit and in truth, his life, acts and conduct reflected the reality of the Great Religion which he professed and—Whereas he was called upon as a Judge of the Civic courts to determine questions touching the life and liberty of men, and questions involving property rights of the greatest importance and most paramount interests to the people whom he served, and Whereas those decisions for justice, acumen and ability stand forth as one of the great expositions of the civil law applied to the principles of brotherly love, right living and right thinking.

Now, Therefore be it Resolved, by the Fidelis Class, of the First Baptist church, of Hopkinsville, Ky., that in the loss of Judge J. T. Hanbery, this class has lost a teacher equaled only by few, and excelled by none. And the Great Church, of which this class is only a part, has lost one of its most distinguished, zealous and able men; one of its genuinely loyal and ardent supporters. In all of our great churches of the Southland, none could boast a laymember more deeply grounded in the faith, and with a keener conception of the Bible and its teachings, and we had no more orthodox teacher than he, and this city in which we live has lost its foremost citizen; the legal profession one of its shining lights, and the judiciary of the State one of its ablest exponents.

Be it further Resolved, That this class extend to the family of our deceased Brother, its sincere sympathy and profoundest condolence, and this resolution be spread at large upon our minutes and a copy thereof be sent to Mrs. Nola Hanbery, a copy given the the city papers for publication, and that this resolution be adopted by a rising vote.

"Sleep, on Brother, softly sleep, While the loved ones for thee weep; May thy spirit from above Hear us in fondest Christian love.

When the ebb of time is o'er When the world shall be no more, Still in class rooms of light above Shall we live in deathless love."
